- 🌱 LABOUR REDUCTION: It is estimated that every case of paper towel requires one hour of labour to fill dispensers and dispose of waste
- 🌱 HYGIENE: Hand dryers are rated the most hygienic of all drying methods (Mayo Clinic Study). Independent research by Innovaltech and S.M. Laboratories demonstrated a 30% reduction in aerobic bacteria compared to paper towels
- 🌱 ENERGY USE: A 10 second hand drying cycle uses half the energy of paper towels when towel production, packaging, and transportation are factored in
- 🌱 CLIMATE CHANGE: Drying hands with a warm air dryer produces up to 18 times less greenhouse gas than with paper towels, dramatically reducing your carbon footprint
- 🌱 WASTE REDUCTION: Paper towels end up in landfills because they cannot be recycled. Hand dryers comply with current and pending solid waste reduction legislation
- 🌱 POLLUTION: Up to 20,000 gallons of water are polluted to produce 1 ton of paper towel. Hand dryers fare better than paper towels by every key environmental measure
